1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Neil Bartfeld on April 24, 2007

IN THE CLAIMS

Cancel claims 24 and 25, as being duplicates of claims 3 and 16, respectively.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: In addition to the cancellation of the two newly submitted claims as being duplicates of preexisting dependent claims the Examiner notes that his prior art rejection of record based upon 35 USC 103(a) is invalid. This is because the earliest effective filing date which applicant is entitled to is his UK filing date, the PCT priority date of July 10, 2002. This date is earlier than the Publication Date of the Examiner's reference, WO 02/076733, which is October 3, 2002. As to applicant's comments (Response, pages 5-6) regarding whether or not WO '733 qualifies as 35 USC 103(c) prior art under 35 USC 102(e) this argument is misplaced because 102(e) is not relevant since the reference is a PCT patent. Finally, the Examiner notes and agrees with applicant's remarks (Response, page 6) regarding misstatements which were made on his part concerning the prior art combination rejection of EP '760 taken in view of EP '161 in response to the initial Office Action of June 13, 2000. However, it should be noted that while EP '161 is believed to never expressly mention HDPE it does in a few places teach the equivalence of polypropylene with copolymers of ethylene which would include such well known compositions as HDPE. In any event, the reference prior art combination suffered from other flaws as well, several of which were pointed out by applicant, and consequently was withdrawn without comment by the Examiner.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Daniel Zirker whose telephone number is 571-272-1486. The examiner can normally be reached on 5-4-8:30-6:00.
